YOUR STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE to obtaining a real estate license

STEP 1: Complete Your 180-Hour Required Education
Before you can qualify to take the Texas Real Estate Sales Agent Exam, you must complete 180 hours of specified education. These 180 hours must include:

• 30 hours in Principles of Real Estate I (#121)
• 30 hours in Principles of Real Estate II (#122)
• 30 hours in Real Estate Law of Agency (#1151)
• 30 hours in Real Estate Law of Contracts (#1251)
• 30 hours of Promulgated Contract Forms (#351)
• 30 hours in Real Estate Finance (#451)

We offer these courses individually or as a part of our discounted licensing packages, shown on pages 4 and 5.

STEP 2: Consider Obtaining a Sponsoring Broker
In order to practice as a Real Estate Sales Agent, you must be sponsored by a licensed Texas real estate broker. You and your sponsor will both need to complete and submit the Sponsorship Form. Once the form is accepted by TREC, your license will be issued, and you may practice real estate under the sponsorship of the broker. However, you may take all of your education, apply for a license, and even receive an inactive Real Estate Sales Agent license without a sponsoring broker.

STEP 3: Apply and Submit Forms and Fees to TREC
After completing the required 180 hours of licensing education, submit to TREC all education documents and real estate school certificates.

STEP 4: Schedule Your Licensing Exam and Fingerprinting
After you receive your response letter from TREC approving and directing you to the Candidate Information Brochure, you can schedule your exam with Pearson VUE. You will also receive direction on how to submit your fingerprints for review. You have one year from the date your application is filed to pass the examination. The telephone number for Pearson VUE is 800.997.1248.

STEP 5: Prepare for the Exam
Rely on us for the most current and comprehensive exam prep.

STEP 6: Take the Exam
Once you have passed the state exam and your fingerprints are on file, you will receive an Active or Inactive Salesperson License delivered via email from TREC.

An applicant for a real estate sales agent license must complete 180 hours of education consisting of the following courses: Principles, Agency Law, Contract Law, a promulgated contracts and forms addenda course, and a real estate finance course. The courses on pages 6 and 7 fulfill the 180-hour requirement.

MANDATORY
Principles of Real Estate I (121)
Principles of Real Estate II (122)

30 Credit Hours each
OnDemand $124 each
Home Study $105 each
Live Online $174 each

Understanding the underlying principles of the real estate industry is paramount to your long-term career success. These courses are designed to provide you with in-depth exposure to the issues in real estate laws that are specific to the Texas real estate practitioner. You’ll explore constitutional and statutory provisions that are accompanied with explanations that make the law understandable to you.

MANDATORY
Real Estate Law of Agency (1151)

30 Credit Hours
OnDemand $124
Home Study $105
Live Online $174

Mastery of the sometimes perplexing concepts of agency law is crucial to the practice of real estate. This exam-focused course has successfully educated thousands of students on the concepts of agency law, and it can do the same for you. In this course, you will learn about the relationship between a principal and an agent, an agent’s authority, and an agent’s duties, including fiduciary duties and the disclosure of agency. You will also learn about the termination of an agent’s authority, employment law, deceptive trade practices, and listing or buying representation procedures. We know your time is valuable, so don’t waste it on unproven courses. Enroll today!

MANDATORY
Real Estate Law of Contracts (1251)

30 Credit Hours
OnDemand $124
Home Study $105
Live Online $174

Understanding contract law is vital to the practice of real estate. This course combines solid concepts of contract law with the most up-to-date, state-specific information you need to pass the contract questions on the Texas licensing exam. Based on Texas Promulgated Contract Forms, this contracts course prepares you for success on your licensing exam, in addition to building a solid foundation for your real estate career.

In this course, you will learn about the unauthorized practice of law, the Broker-Lawyer Committee, and current promulgated forms. You will also learn about commission rules governing the use of forms, as well as case studies involving the use of forms.

Courses are available for purchase individually or as part of a package. See page 4 to compare package options, and visit us online at www.KapRE.com/TXLIC to enroll.

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED
Texas Real Estate Exam Prep
With Complete Online Drill & Practice QBank
0 Credit Hours
OnDemand or Live Online $169 (Tuition includes all books)
See below for the exam prep live online schedule.
Exam prep is the most accurate predictor of whether you are ready for the actual licensing exam. This course consists of two full-length practice exams and two content review sessions. Each practice exam consists of the same two portions you will face on the actual licensing exam (a national portion and a state portion).
Additionally, you will receive online access to the National Pearson VUE Drill and Practice QBank and the Texas Real Estate Drill and Practice QBank. You’ll be as prepared as possible when you test yourself with hundreds of questions. You can simulate nearly every test environment to help improve your exam score. And because the QBank is online, you can access it anytime, anywhere it is convenient for you!

Real Estate Math
0 Credit Hours
OnDemand $29
Does real estate math make you anxious and uneasy? Then this refresher course is just what you need to prepare for your licensing exam. You will review the calculations to determine a commission under different circumstances. Additionally, you will understand how to determine the seller’s net from sale and price based on a specified seller’s net. You’ll review the calculations necessary to establish the amount a property has appreciated or depreciated. Building on this calculation, you will then review how to ascertain the rate of return on a property and verify formulas necessary for property managers.
Loan calculations will be reviewed, and you’ll develop greater understanding of loan-to-value ratio and equity, discount points and origination fees, amortization and qualifying a buyer, area calculations, legal descriptions, and much more. Enroll today!

Real Estate Finance (451)
30 Credit Hours
OnDemand $124
Home Study $105
Live Online $174
You will learn about monetary systems, primary and secondary money markets, and sources of mortgage loans. You will also learn about federal government programs, loan applications, processes and procedures, closing costs, alternative financial instruments, equal credit opportunity acts, community reinvestment act, and the state housing agency.

Texas Essentials of Real Estate Investment (935)
30 Credit Hours
OnDemand $159
Home Study $105
The desire to accumulate a measurably valuable estate and to generate a revenue stream is no doubt one major reason for the tremendous interest in the ownership of real property in this country. It appears that almost everyone gives high priority to the ownership of real estate, from the smallest condominium to the largest shopping center. This course examines the current real estate market and describes the various opportunities for real estate investors.

Property Management (851)
30 Credit Hours
OnDemand $159
Home Study $105
Property managers must be mindful of strategies for risk reduction, environmental issues and safety, and understanding the needs of tenants and owners, all while maintaining and managing properties. This course explores daily issues facing practitioners, such as maintenance, accounting, administrative, and legal activities. The course has up-to-date content on federal regulations, such as civil rights, fair housing, ADA issues, and environmental concerns.

Texas Sales and Marketing 101 for Real Estate Professionals (551)
30 Credit Hours
OnDemand $159
Home Study $105
Discover how accurate market research and understanding client motivations can help you segment your marketplace for the most effective target marketing possible. Also answered is the age-old question of the difference between price and value, and how it is employed to support your fees.
